Thank You. Please immediately send me the list of markets that you have designated to redeem deposits. I need this right away and it is not on your website.

RE: RePlanet

Dear Paul,

CalRecycle is working to gather more information about rePlanet's announced closures and the resulting impact on California consumers.

California has taken action to stabilize Beverage Container Recycling Program subsidies paid to beverage container buyback centers to help cover the cost of processing materials, and will continue to explore ways to support the program. That said, beverage container recycling centers are private businesses and many have decided to close in recent years, despite the subsidies they receive from the program, due to economic conditions affecting the industry as a whole.

Is Replanet closed down? They do not answer their phone, and are closing recycling centers. Please call me I am working on a story now. Do you have ANY information?
